THE MODERN-DAY RENAISSANCE ARTIST

JOHN F. THOMAS

Actor – Producer – Writer

BIO

John F. Thomas is a published author of “The Prodigy Series”. His main passions however are acting and writing for film and television. He produced his latest short film, “Emotical”, which has garnered many nominations and six awards, including “Best Actor in a Sci-Fi Film” by the Best Actor Film Festival, in their gold category. Already looking to expound upon these accolades, John is in development of a television series of “Emotical”, as well as continuing his run on his successful book series.

Also, under the moniker, J.T. Slimcutta, John has released his album: “Allow Me To Reintroduce Myself”, which blends R&B and Pop, with a sprinkle of 1930’s Big Band music; featuring his smooth vocals, similarly reminiscent of the great Marvin Gaye. Also, in connection to this album, John was recently awarded the “Outstanding Achievement Award – Music Video” for his animated music video “Aeons” at the Cult Critic Movie Awards.
